

Supporting English Learners in the Classroom

June 8, 2018

Registration: 8:00-8:30 a.m.
Sessions: 8:30- 3:30 p.m.

Who should attend?

Classroom Teachers, EL teachers, Counselors, Administrators

AGENDA:

Gum Dip Theater Presents:

Namaste-What?

A Nepali-American Variety Show that is a high-energy, collaborative play that demonstrates the demands of being multi-lingual, the challenges of navigating between different cultures, and the celebrations of communication and its power.

Cultural Responsive Practices

The session will have participants understand the basics of cultural competency and explore how to use cultural responsive practices in the classroom setting to promote student success. (K-12; All subjects)

Lunch on your own

Breakout Session I
Breakout Session II

Helping ELs in the General Education Heterogeneous Classroom

These breakout sessions will explore specific strategies for students of all English proficiency levels in order to facilitate learning new content in a new language. (K-12; All subjects)

Q&A with Presenters

Breakout Presenters:

Jessica Burchett

Marion Schools EL Coordinator, OTESOL & International TESOL Rep

Sara Levitt

Whitehall Schools EL Coordinator, OTESOL Board Member

Stark State Advanced Technology Center

6057 Strip Ave.
North Canton, OH 44720
(Site of NEW SCESC!)
Free Parking in Front of Building

Registration:

<https://goo.gl/forms/e274i3P0kTzsnf8P2>

FREE!

Questions?

dana.weber@email.sparcc.org